

What We Do?

We often speak about our relationships at home, at work, hobbies and what we do in a normal life, so fundamentally it is learning and hearing about being human.

Are you being called from loneliness, confusion, or isolation to fellowship, truth, and friendship? Are you seeking the peace the world cannot give or take?

Archdiocese of San Antonio, Texas.

Led by the Holy Spirit

“I felt that there was nobody I could talk to about that at all. Certainly not my family. Certainly not my pastor. Certainly not my friends.”

(A Courage member testimony)

Courage is a place where men and women experiencing Same Sex Attraction can speak openly. Courage invites each member to embrace chastity in mind, heart, and body, and to move away from relationships and behaviors that are not chaste.

“Look at the face of the other.... Discover that he has a soul, a history, and a life, that he is a person, and that God loves this person.” Pope Emeritus Benedict XVI

“I have told you this so that my joy may be in you and that your joy may be complete.”

John 15:11

“Les he dicho esto para que tengan mi alegría y así su alegría sea completa.”

Juan 15:11

Each and every person, without exception, is a beloved and unique creation of God -made in His image, and by grace His child - called to abundant life and love. This is the deepest source of our identity and dignity.

You are not alone. You are not abandon. You are not rejected.

You are welcome.

“Courage is doing the Work of God.”

St. John Paul II
